

איסור לדבר בשעת תפילה
Speaking during Davening is forbidden

{The Maggid told the Beis Yosef} (בראש ספרו)
“One should not talk during davening even words of Torah”

מגיד מישרים

“One who talks idle talk during davening should not be counted in to make a Minyan”

(סימן נ"ה סק"ה)

הפ"ז

“After one finishes his quiet
Shmone Esrei and the Chazzan still didn't begin the repetition, it's a serious sin to speak at that time”

(בשם גורי האר"י ז"ל)

החיד"א

“Once the Torah reading has begun, it is forbidden to talk, even Torah discussions, even between Aliyos, and even if he already finished the whole Parsha”

(ס" קמ"ו ס"ג)

שלחן ערוך

“Even though the Sefer Torah is closed between Aliyos, it still is forbidden to converse then”

(ברכות ה')

רבינו יונה

“Whoever enters the synagogue during the Chazan's repetition of Shemone Esrei should take care not to speak, even if he did not yet begin his prayers or if he already prayed”

(עמ' קכ"ד)

ספר מקדש מעט

“One who is careful not to converse during prayers is bound to live a long life and have a pleasant old age”

(דף י"א)
